

Pilbara and Kimberley:

Seizing opportunities and creating partnerships

HON JACQUI BOYDELL MLC
Member for Mining and Pastoral Region

The Current Context

- Pilbara as the economic superpower
- Pilbara and the Kimberley has a “treasure chest” of productive resources
- Significant global factors in play

Realising the Potential

- WA needs to develop a modern trade and investment architecture
- WA needs to encourage and be open to inward investment
- WA needs to look at ways to seize opportunities through partnerships and trade relationships

WA: Open for Business

- A modern trade and investment architecture that links investors with opportunities
- Office of Inward Investment to help businesses relocate, diversify or expand their business in Western Australia
- $300 million dollar agricultural policy lies in conjunction

Concluding Remarks

- WA has a vision to transform the Pilbara and Kimberley regions, both socially and economically
- A modern trade and investment architecture is essential in seizing opportunities
- WA needs to work in partnership to realise the potential
